Caleb Kinderman at The Pearson Centre for Young People

Caleb has been working with the 17th Nottingham BB with its members aged 11 - 18 years old. He has been assisting with various activities and since January leading an activity with a small group of young men. When Caleb first arrived he was a very quiet young man, and he has grown in confidence building great relationships with both the young men and the other volunteers. Caleb is always gives 100% and is very reliable.
