Helping run a guide unit in Beeston, organised through the Scout and Guide Society. Many other students are with other Guiding and Scouting groups in the local area as well.

I work as part of a team to run weekly meetings for our group, giving girls a range of opportunities and experiences that they may not have otherwise. The new Girlguiding programme also gives our members the chance to learn life skills that they may not have chance to learn otherwise.